

ORDINARY TIME PART II

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Feast of the Christ the King

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time
A Heart Ready to Follow Kuya Jesus

Kuya Jesus' Story

Jesus told a story about a father who asked his two sons to work in his vineyard. The first son said he would not go, but later changed his mind and went to work. The second son said he would go, but he never went. Jesus asked which son had done the father's will. The people answered that it was the first son. Jesus explained that some people who first seemed far from God listened, repented, and followed him. Others said the right things but did not obey. Jesus taught that God wants people to truly do his will, not just talk about it.

Kuya Jesus Trusts Us with His Blessings

Kuya Jesus' Story

Jesus told a story about a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a wine press, built a tower, and rented it to tenants before going on a journey. When harvest time came, he sent his servants to collect his share of the fruit. The tenants beat one servant, killed another, and stoned a third. The landowner sent more servants, but they were treated the same way. Finally, he sent his son, but the tenants killed him. Jesus then asked what the owner would do. Jesus told a story about a king who prepared a wedding feast for his son. The king sent servants to call the invited guests, but they refused to come. He sent more servants to tell them that the feast was ready, but the guests ignored the invitation and went about their business. Some even mistreated and killed the servants. The king became angry and sent his soldiers to punish those responsible. Then he told his servants to go out to the roads and invite everyone they could find. Kuya Jesus Deserves Our Whole Heart

Kuya Jesus' Story

The Pharisees made plans to trap Jesus with a question. They sent some of their followers and supporters of Herod to speak with him. They asked Jesus whether it was lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not. Jesus knew what they were trying to do and asked them to show him the coin used for the tax. They brought him a coin, and Jesus asked whose image and name were on it. They answered, "Caesar's." Jesus then said, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." The people were amazed by his answer.

Kuya Jesus Teaches the Greatest Commandment

Kuya Jesus' Story

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had answered the Sadducees, they gathered together. One of them, a scholar of the law, asked Jesus a question to test him. He asked which commandment in the law was the greatest. Jesus answered that people must love the Lord their God with all their heart, all their soul, and all their mind. He said this is the greatest and first commandment. Then Jesus said the second commandment is like it: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." He explained that all the law and the teachings of the prophets depend on these two commandments.

Kuya Jesus Is the King of Love

Kuya Jesus' Story

Jesus said that when the Son of Man comes in his glory, he will sit on his glorious throne, and all the nations will be gathered before him. He will separate people into two groups, as a shepherd separates sheep from goats. He will place the sheep at his right and the goats at his left. The King will speak to those on his right and welcome them into his kingdom because they helped him when he was hungry, thirsty, a stranger, without clothes, sick, and in prison. Then he will speak to those on his left, who did not help him in these situations. Jesus said that whatever people did or did not do for others, they also did or did not do for him.
